We welcome new disciples to our parish communities. If you live within our parish boundaries, which is our mission field, then you are already a member. It is still important that you register at the Parish Office or during registration weekends so we can communicate with you throughout the year. We are here to help you meet Jesus Christ, grow in holiness, and fully participate in a life of prayer.

Please call or stop at either parish office, or speak with Fr. Schuster. We are disciples together!
ST. JOSEPH PRAYER

Good St. Joseph,
As you led the Holy Family,
watch over our families.
Help our family and all families
to know and share God’s love.
In our family relationships, may we find healing and seek to be holy.
May our fathers help us to become faithful disciples of Jesus who share our love for Him.

As foster father of Jesus,
watch over all who serve as spiritual fathers.
In a special way,
bless our Holy Father,
our Bishop, and our priests.

May they follow your humble example in their fatherly care for the people of God, the Church.
With Mary, you raised Jesus
the High Priest.

You know our need for priests.
Please raise up good and holy priests
from our families
to serve the people of our diocese.
May our children and grandchildren
hear and say ‘yes’ to the call of Jesus, just as you and Mary did.

Good St. Joseph, pray for us.

SUNDAY FAMILY PRAYER SERVICE

Prepare a quiet place that is centered on the crucifix. Consider arranging a family home “altar” with holy items along with a lit candle.

- Begin with the Sign of the Cross: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”
- Spend a moment acknowledging your sins, and pray:

  “I confess to Almighty God
  and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
  through my fault, through my fault,
  through my most grievous fault;
  therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
  all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.”

- Read the readings for Mass found in this bulletin.
- Invite 3 minutes of silence. Set a stopwatch and see how it feels to sit together in silence for 3 minutes thinking about the Word of God.
- Ask each member of the family to identify a point from the Gospel that seemed to strengthen them, or “speak” to them. Encourage a discussion on the readings. Perhaps the father of the family prepares a message for his family based on the Gospel or one of the readings.
- Optional Sharing. “How has Jesus kept his promise to always be with us?”
  “Why does Jesus go upwards in the Ascension? What is the significance of heaven being up there?” “Based only on what you know of the Scriptures, what do you think heaven will be like?”
- Recite the Creed (found in this bulletin).
- Conduct prayers of petition, ending each one with, “Let us pray to the Lord.” “Lord, hear our prayer.”
- Recite the “Our Father” together.
- Pray slowly the spiritual communion prayer:

  My Jesus,
  I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
  I love You above all things,
  and I desire to receive You into my soul.
  Since I cannot at this moment
  receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually
  into my heart.
  I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
  Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

- Close with a group of devotional prayers, including any of your favorites.
  Include the “Year of St. Joseph Prayer” from the bulletin. Now pray the rosary or pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.
Scripture Readings

Acts 1:1-11
In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven."

Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9
God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

The Nicene Creed for Sunday Mass

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

COVER ART
The Ascension of Christ (1304-06) by Giotto is featured on the front cover. You can see the various groups of angels, saints, Apostles, and disciples (and the Virgin Mary too). You can see the Risen Jesus with his arms in the air as if he is climbing up to heaven. We need to keep our heads up and always be aware that the veil between heaven and earth is very thin. There is more to life which is invisible than what is actually visible. There are two realms; the earthly and the heavenly. Jesus goes before us in all things except for sin. Where he is climbing, we hope to climb. Every detail in this painting is pointing up, and so should every detail of our lives.

CONFESSION TIMES

Act of Contrition:
My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you, whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with the help of your grace, to do penance, to sin no more and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Our Savior, Jesus Christ, suffered and died for us.
On Pentecost Weekend, May 30-31, we will undertake the first steps towards returning to public celebrations of the Sacrifice of the Holy Mass. Despite the recent ruling from the Wisconsin Supreme Court, a gradual approach to re-opening must be undertaken for the health and safety of our parishioners; especially those who are elderly or more susceptible to the deadly COVID-19 virus. The following guidelines are mandatory, but may be modified in the coming weeks by Bishop David Ricken. The first step to re-opening will simply involve streaming people through the church for the reception of Holy Communion.

- Parishioners who are able are strongly encouraged to participate spiritually at Mass by means of Facebook, television, radio, or by conducting the prayer service included in the bulletin. Participating in the Mass from the parking lot will be allowed. Praying along with a Mass is to be done, if possible, just before Holy Communion OR just after (if you are going to pray with the Bishop’s Mass on television).
- At a set time following our own local Mass (which will be celebrated in the church with a small group of those who are assisting at the Mass) the Catholic faithful who are in a state of grace and have fasted for one hour will be able to come through the church and receive Holy Communion. There will be one-hour allotted for this spiritual activity following each Mass.
- It is important to remember that no Catholic is required to receive Holy Communion during the pandemic. This permission is for those who desire to receive Holy Communion and can safely do so. The dispensation from attending Sunday Mass remains in effect during this first stage.

We recognize that this is not an ideal solution, but it will allow us to remain closer to our Lord through the effects of the Mass and Holy Communion. More details to come. Further details and documentation are found on our parish websites. Please read them!

“In WILL YOU NOT WAIT WITH ME ONE HOUR?” - MT 26:40

In order to foster deeper prayer, we invite people of all ages to make a visit to Our Lord during Eucharistic Adoration at our parishes. Pews will be marked off for safe distancing. Anyone with illnesses, cough, or fever should not attend. No sign-up or sign-in is ever required. Just come and rest with Jesus.

Holy Trinity Parish: Tuesday at 1:00pm, finishes with Benediction at 2:00pm
